

A WAY TO SAVE LILY BAY

Remove
Proposed Development*
from Lily Bay

* 404 resort units or houses, stores, roads, a golf course, a marina (equivalent to a new town)

Legend

-  Vernal Pools (WAI)
-  Vernal Pool Buffer (750ft)
-  Inland Wading Bird & Waterfowl Habitat
-  Rusty Blackbird
-  Olive Sided Flycatcher (WAI)
-  Least Bittern
-  Northern Goshawk
-  Hardwood River Terrace Floodplain
-  Aquatic Habitat
-  Lesser Shinleaf
-  Salmonid Habitat
-  Spruce Fir BroomMoss Forest
-  Northern Spring Salamander
-  Fragrant Wood Fern
-  Brook Trout Stream (WAI)
-  Lynx Siting
-  Deer Wintering Area
-  Plant and Natural Communities (MNP)
-  Proposed Lily Bay Development Zone
-  Proposed Development Zones
-  Required Conservation-Purchase
-  Required Conservation-Donated
-  Lily Bay State Park & Sugar Island
-  Remove LURC-Required Conservation

Based on June 2008 proposed LURC Amendments to Plum Creek Concept Plan

Map Produced by Maine Audubon June 2008

Remove 33,500
Acres from Required Conservation

