Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:
environment, now and for future generations.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:
law, science, and the voices of nearly 20,000 supporters statewide and beyond to protect the places and way of life that make Maine so special.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:
Sustainable Maine: Tapping into the state's strong tradition of local action, NRCM takes a practical, collaborative approach to addressing environmental problems faced by Maine people, businesses, and communities, particularly to prevent and better manage waste. NRCM seeks to achieve systemic changes in policies and practices at the local and state levels to reduce the environmental impacts of daily living. NRCM has helped achieve many first-in-the-nation policies to reduce plastic, packaging, and difficult-to-manage materials and works to ensure that corporations responsible for generating waste become part of the solution for recycling, reduced packaging, and design changes in products.

Healthy Waters: NRCM plays a critical role in preventing pollution to Maine waterways and advocating for policies to improve the health of our rivers, lakes, and streams, as well as the communities, wildlife, and fisheries that depend upon those waters. NRCM focuses on removal of obsolete dams that block fish migration, preventing toxic pollution such as mineral mining, and watchdogging permit applications and policy proposals that could threaten Maine waters.

State House Advocacy: NRCM is Maine's leading environmental advocate at the State House, using its policy advocates and outreach staff to track and influence dozens of bills each legislative session. NRCM drafts legislation and amendments, testifies before multiple committees, works with coalitions on legislative strategies, and provides education to elected officials as they seek passage of important legislative proposals across a range of issues.

Forests & Wildlife: NRCM works to protect Maine's natural areas, wildlife habitat, and the undeveloped character of Maine's North Woods. We support responsible land development and sustainable forest practices that protect sensitive ecosystems and habitat. We also advocate for increased public ownership of Maine lands to improve access to the natural world for Maine people and visitors. While development pressures and the loss of public access continue to intensify, NRCM remains a leading voice for balancing economic development with conservation, especially in Maine's iconic North Woods.

Federal: Decisions made in Washington, D.C., have lasting effects on Maine's clean air and water, thriving forests and wildlife, and on the health of Maine people, its economy, and its way of life. NRCM works directly with Maine's Congressional delegation and with a broad

The Form 990 is prepared by a public accounting firm and then reviewed by internal management. The completed Form 990 is then sent to all board members for review and comments prior to the final copy being filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
Board members and staff are to disclose any conflict of interest that arises by virtue of their board service or employment. The organization will monitor the compliance with an annual disclosure statement that is distributed to these individuals. For any conflict of interest, the person involved in the conflict shall take action in consultation with chief executive officer or president of the board to avoid participation in the matter to effectively avoid the conflict. The president and/or chief executive officer will monitor ongoing transactions or other matters affecting the organization for the conflicts of interest and will disclose those conflicts immediately to the executive committee or board appropriate.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:
The organization undertakes a process of compiling a comparison of salaries and benefits to ensure that the compensation is reasonable, given the market in which the organization operates. These comparisons are used to gauge ranges and salaries for staff. The executive director's salary is reviewed and approved by the executive committee of the board of directors. All other staff salary adjustments are recommended by the management team approved by the finance committee as part of the budgeting process.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:
